MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION, 2009-2010

Thank you for your interest in joining in the Boston Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. Your membership dues will support programs offered by both the national organization and the Boston Chapter. Rates for July 1, 2009-June 30, 2010 have been set by the national office as follows:

| | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| Regular | $ 92 |
| Special (under age 21, over age 65, disabled) | 67 |
| Full-time Student (copy of school ID required) | 37 |
| Partner (second member at same address) | 67 |
| Dual (paid to secondary chapter) | 36 |
| Full-time Student Dual (paid to secondary chapter; copy of school ID required) | 15 |
| Chapter Friend (affiliation ; newsletter only; this category is for individuals who are NOT practicing organists or choral directors) | 25 |

To join, return the completed information form and your check in the appropriate amount (payable to "Boston Chapter, AGO") to me at the above address.

In addition to varied monthly programs, the Boston Chapter also offers:

- A placement service that assists organists in finding employment in churches and synagogues;
- The regular publication of a substitute organist list;
- A monthly newsletter containing lists of educational programs, Chapter recitals, and other concerts in the Boston area, along with news and informative articles on all aspects of the local organ community;
- Services of the Organ Advisory Committee, which assists churches and synagogues in the process of purchasing new organs or improving existing ones;
- An extensive library of organ music and related materials at Boston University.

Regular, Special, and Student members receive a one-year subscription to The American Organist. Upon joining, all new members/friends receive a copy of the Boston Chapter yearbook, which includes a listing of Chapter members/friends.

Again, thanks for your interest in the AGO. We hope you will join us and look forward to seeing you at a Chapter event soon. If you have further questions, please contact me.
